Our Agreement

The Fever is dedicated to provide the highest quality professional environment for soccer education, training, development, and competition to the undersigned soccer player for the 2011-2012 travel soccer season. The undersigned has read, understands, and agrees to all terms and conditions of the Fever program guide for their age group, requirements for training, the importance placed on soccer priorities, the importance of attending training and preparedness for competition events, the year-long commitment made to the Fever and his/her coaches and respective teammates, and the associated fees for the commitment period. Upon your acceptance to an offer to join the Fever you will be registered as a Fever player under IYSA sanctioning for the 2011-2012 travel soccer season. Upon notice you have been selected, a $150 non-refundable deposit is due immediately along with the 1st monthly payment. Players have the option of declining or confirming the seasonal commitment to the Fever in response to the offer. The commitment to the Fever and all associated fees included in the program outline will be considered a contractual agreement upon completion of this registration form and signing fee payment of $150.
